

1 - Search Book Test Case

Description: Users or guests can reach the books that they want to reach or view via book search button

Pre-conditions: To search for a book, it must be entered as a system user or guest.

Post-conditions: To search for a book, the name of the book must be entered in the search button after entering the system.

Data required: BookName or AuthorName or BookCode

2- Login Test Case

Description: The user and the librarian log in from the same site but are directed to different pages. There is a separate button for the guest and the reserve button is redirected to an inactive page.

Pre-conditions: Running the Program

Post-conditions: Pressing the login button after the data is entered.

Data required: UserName and Password